FOUNDATIONS FORUM WEBINAR SERIES

Webinar 1 17th Nov (1-2pm) | Webinar 2 24th Nov (1-2pm) | Webinar 3 3rd Dec (1-2pm)

ABOUT THIS WEBINAR

In a series of three FREE online events John Armstrong is addressing the following topics, using the lens of Social Role Valorisation:

Webinar 1: How can you prevent people's lives getting lost in the discussion of funding and support arrangements?

Webinar 2: What tensions arise when providing formal support in informal environments?

Webinar 3: What's the big deal about the good things of life?

Who is this webinar for?

Anyone who is interested in addressing the needs of people who are marginalised and has a commitment to positive lives for all people. The webinars are designed for individuals, families and for participants from a range of sectors (disability, education, aged care, mental health, youth, etc).

If you are seeking ways to meet the real needs of marginalised individuals and are a support worker, teacher, coordinator, advocate, family member, person with disability or an older person receiving services, then these webinars have particular relevance.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

John Armstrong has had a long career in many human service roles, the last thirty as a human service consultant, evaluator and trainer to people, families and organisations across Australia, NZ and other parts of the world. His work is underpinned by the knowledge and application of Social Role Valorisation (SRV) which provides a practice framework for successfully transforming the lives of people who are, or at risk of being, devalued by their communities.
